EASTER PARADE REPORT:

In March, we met at the home of Ellen & Ken Rabeneck for a very nice breakfast before the parade. (16) members attended with (7) Model A Ford's and a 1955 Chevy.

THANK YOU, Ken & Ellen for your hospitality!

The weather was good, and the streets were lined with multitudes of kids looking for candy, they were not disappointed! What "A" great way to start off the driving season!

PERRYVILLE REPORT:

Earlier this month, the Central Kentucky MARC invited us to join them in Perryville Kentucky. We met at the museum and from there we traveled to the battlefield where Harold Edwards, of the Lexington club, gave the group an overview of the historic event.

Afterward, we had a nice catered lunch with some social time at the Bottom House Bed and Breakfast. Before leaving Perryville, we visited downtown shops and their beautiful river walk.

There were (47) people in attendance with (19) Model A Fords driven. The weather was perfect and best of all it was a great day with friends!

“A” big thanks goes out to our CKMARC friends for setting up this great event!
